Apr 24, 2020 How to Activate Quickbooks? A: In Quickbooks Desktop, under Help, there is a section called the "How to validate your product" It lets you know how to validate your product (aka ActiveSync). In your case you want to validate by calling a phone number. This is more useful if you are trying to do it over wifi or if you are on a mobile phone and not on your desktop. The validation call is not free but it is still well worth it. A: you don't need to call a phone number. when you open your QB dashboard, go to the hamburger icon on the top right of the dashboard, click on "Products & Services" and go to the "Activate your product" option. A comparison of in situ and freeze-dried Pichia pastoris cell wall composition and morphology. Cryo-SEM imaging was used to obtain three-dimensional views of Pichia pastoris cells. A scanning electron microscopy (SEM) of aldehyde fixed frozen-hydrated cells revealed the presence of a curved central cell wall layer with internal spicules on the spheroidal cell surface. In contrast, in situ freeze-dried cells did not contain the central wall layer, and exhibited a spherical surface. In situ freeze-drying of whole cells resulted in cell dehydration, with the preservation of cell structure. The effects of dehydration on P. pastoris cell wall morphology were studied and compared with SEM and X-ray micro-diffraction (XRD) of in situ freeze-dried cells. Atomic force microscopy (AFM) and SEM imaging of in situ freeze-dried cells was used to determine cell surface topography. AFM imaging demonstrated increased cell size after freeze-drying. SEM imaging indicated a decrease in cell size after freeze-drying. X
