How does it work?It's really simple: it uninstalls the current battery software from your computer and then replaces it with a new one that we have created for our software. It also automatically optimizes your battery settings with the new one.Does it work with any battery and not only with an AC-3 or AC-4 battery?Well it's not a battery that you need to buy. It's only a software you need to download, so it will work with any battery because it's not a dedicated software that you need to install. How can I protect myself against cyber threats and viruses?Cyber threats and viruses are more common than you think. As a software publisher, we are constantly being bombarded with hackers, malware, viruses and other cyber threats. Most viruses and malware are designed to steal money from you, jeopardize your privacy and gather information about you. These threats require you to be very cautious. For example, it is recommended to avoid registering on websites that are linked to people's personal information and financial information (like banks, credit card companies, etc.). If you think that you have contracted a virus or malware, it is important that you have the most updated anti-virus software installed on your computer and protected. Virus and malware. Virus and malware are constantly evolving and trying to take over the world. This requires us as software publishers to change the way we deliver our products so that they do not contain malware or viruses in them. Virus and malware.
