You can go straight to the top 20 by clicking on the very top product This is a bit weird, but anyway, try to remove the 20 first product from the list using the Remove button, and then add them as top 20 again. A: Ok, i think the best way to do this was to convert the list to an array. Then iterate through the array and create a custom product badge for each product. The code used was: `$filtered_result = array();
foreach($items as $item){ $filtered_result[] = array('id' => $item['id'], 'name' => $item['name'], 'link' => $item['link'], 'archived' => $item['archived']); } Then at a later date i put together the CSS and copied/pasted the code in a stylesheet. Hope this is of use to someone else as i am not very smart. Thanks for the help, R :-moz-submit-invalid { display: none; } Submit 648931e174`
