Building a Wall Textbooks on this title: Salle de Conversation - Remontoire. Builders of the Adytum Builders of the Adytum Private Lessons 150 PDFs " 109 The building of a wall, even if they only consist of timber, is impossible without the earth. The king of the city would not allow them to build their wall because they belonged to a different tribe. Their only protection is the protection of the wall (Adamo 3:28). Under the laws of Moses, the Israelites could not separate themselves from the rest of their people and dwell in their own private homes (Hosea 1:5). No one can separate himself from the whole like the sun and the moon. He has built his habitation in the heavens and rests from his work. Therefore, it is absolutely right that one should seek a kingdom in order to be separated from others. Who are we that we should be separated from those who have the king of the earth? So the Israelites went to the priest in the place of worship, and they learned in the law that this was the practice of the ancient men. They learned that it is the kind of kingdom in which we cannot be separated. With the help of the priests, we learn that we are not separated from the wall of the city. But this wall of the city was built by the hands of the builder of the wall. Who is he? He is the Lord, our God. He built this city of our God according to the law. What did he build? He built this city so that it would be protected from its enemies. He built this city with the support of a woman. Her name is Rahab. She is the one who lives in the sacred city. The Bible says that she is a relative of Lot's. This relative has been covered with a beautiful tent. When the children of Israel come to kill this city, they will see this beautiful tent and do not know that it belongs to a relative of Lot. Therefore the things we see on the earth are signs and prophecies for those who live there. When the Israelites leave their own city and come to the city of the holy land, they will see that it is surrounded by a wall and that they are protected by it. So the children of Israel should not ignore those who live in the holy land. They should know that these are
