Hours: 9Å .The Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles has voted unanimously to pardon a man who killed a car thief when he was 17 and who was on parole after serving two years of a three-year sentence for manslaughter. Raymond Nickerson Raymond Nicholas ("Nick") "Nick" Nickerson (born June 7, 1962), is a former American, convicted murderer. He murdered John Reilly, a car thief, on April 25, 1980 after a chase with the thief's accomplice. Nickerson was sentenced to 3 years in prison for the manslaughter charge, but was released on parole on January 13, 1982. Nickerson was re-arrested on January 10, 1983 for murder. The Board of Pardons and Paroles voted unanimously on March 1, 2013, to pardon him for the 1980 murder of John Reilly, a 26-year-old car thief. He was 19 years old at the time. Nickerson was granted a new trial in 1989 and acquitted of the homicide. In his final parole hearing in June 2013, the Board of Pardons and Paroles granted Nickerson another 15 years of parole. Military career Nickerson served in the United States Army from 1980-1982 with the 1st Battalion, 37th Armored Regiment, 4th Cavalry Division. He was released on January 13, 1982. Background In April 1980, John Reilly was robbed by a 15-year-old boy and a 17-year-old boy. The boys were riding in a stolen car when they noticed the car's white-yellow license plate and called it in to police. The boys were chased by police and a car chase ensued. The chase ended when the car hit a tree and the 17-year-old driver ran off. Police then started searching for the 15-year-old robber. A police officer found the other boy hiding in a field and arrested him for auto theft. The police also found the stolen car and found the 15-yearold's
