>Overcured Game by a freeware:Din's Curse. Game about a man named Din who, goes on a journey with the spirit of a saber tooth tiger to slay a malevolent dragon. The game allows up to four players to work together in different roles in order to succeed in their quest. The game is quite rewarding, though there are multiple grinding and grinding loops especially on the first half of the game. But overall the game is quite good and rich in the various game mechanics.Thu, 08 May 2012 00:00:00 -0700
