THE FOUR ELDEN Legend has it that three thousand years ago, a lord of great power known as the Elden One gifted the world with immortality. His name, however, has long since been forgotten. One thousand years ago, the world was restored. The three Elden were reunited with the Guardians who had been guarding their existence for three thousand years. As a result, the Guardians scattered into the Lands Between in order to bring the other Elden to the world. Being the last of his kind, the Elden One, who has long been thought to be an immortal, followed the Guardians. While the Guardians retreated into their isolated places far away from the Lands Between, the Elden One decided to come back to the world... —It was that time. The time has come for an era of war. And the first step is the death of the Elden One. —Now, you and the other Elden who have fallen out of love with life have suddenly been dragged from your peaceful, eternal existence into a world where life is no more than moments. In this newfound world, you must witness a history of humanity unfold. The Elden One, whose power far exceeded that of even the Guardians, took control of the world and began to raise the dead. He alone will be the victor when the world has ended, and he will hold the fate of the world in his hands. To protect yourself against the Elden One, you must unite the survivors of the worlds. You must defeat the Elden One. You must grow to be an Elden Lord. And we have here to help you in your journey. THE FOUR ELDEN The Four Elden represent the four main races of mankind: the Furonse, Crimson, Fiiio, and the Dark. The Furonse and the Crimson people are the races that could once raise the dead, but are dying out now. The Fiiio are a race that can harness the power of life and death, but is fading out. And the Dark are the people who wish for death. Dark Furonse Fluorescent Rosa —Fluorescent —Light —Dying —Gone —Rosa The four races have begun to drift apart over the years, and the Elden have splintered into three groups:

The mainstream media has begun to dissect the trailer for nth interviewers to probe into the heart of its mystery, while fans everywhere continue to applaud the ambitiousness of a three and a half minute teaser that does everything it can to introduce the world to the next chapter in the modern mythology of The Star Trek Universe. The new film is set to have a February 8th, 2013 release, and is currently out in the theatre as I type this. The new trailer has already premiered on E! True Hollywood Story, The Daily Show with Jon Stewart, MTV, and The Daily Beast, which is no surprise as these are some of the most appealing venues for a media-friendly piece of entertainment. After hitting these sweet spots in the media, it's up to the world of fans to spread its message throughout the Internet, and YouTube is still the center of all viral-phenomena at the moment, so anything that can get the message out there will almost certainly succeed in its marketing strategy. The question is: how much of the message is true? Let's take a quick look at the most
