As a result, numerous tools have been created to assist a person with monitoring the flow of information between the person and others. Some tools, such as for example, personal agents, attempt to reduce the amount of effort that a person needs to monitor the flow of information. Unfortunately, such tools are typically either "conversational" or "personal," which means that communication is limited to talk-based communication. For example, a personal agent does not allow a person to engage in, or even detect, activities such as messaging or instant messaging that is not talk-based (e.g., exchange of written or electronic messages). Furthermore, the words and actions of a personal agent are typically limited to words and actions that relate to a social relationship, which may not include all of the possible content a person may want to share with others.Ellen DeGeneres could be turning her attention to the Weinstein Company. According to The Hollywood Reporter, the comedian and Oscar-winning director is in negotiations to direct and star in a new biopic about the infamous movie mogul. Advertisement Steve Harvey Would Play Harvey Weinstein Harvey Weinstein has been a controversial figure over the years, with high-profile women accusing him of sexual misconduct and harassment. But the publication reports that Mr. Weinstein, who has been working on a new film with Oscar-winner Ang Lee, wants DeGeneres to play his wife, Georgina Chapman. "Weinstein told sources at the time he is now reportedly in talks with Ellen DeGeneres to star in and direct his new Weinstein Company film," the Hollywood Reporter reports. "One of Weinstein's meetings with Ellen occurred at the 2016 Producer's Guild Awards, where she was presented with the Gag-to-Go award. Weinstein at the time hoped to woo her to star in an untitled new movie he was developing about the '80s LA television comedy show." Mr. Weinstein was most recently accused of rape by actor and TV personality Rose McGowan in January, following the publication of the autobiography "Brave" by journalist E. Jean Carroll. Weinstein and McGowan's alleged encounter
