Supreme Court of Arkansas. May 2, 1987. *203 John W. Walker, Jr., Fort Smith, for appellants. ROBERT L. BROWN, Special Justice. Appellants' appeal from their convictions of murder in the first degree and received life sentences. They assert three points for reversal: (1) Prosecutorial misconduct deprived them of a fair trial; (2) An arrest warrant affidavit containing false statements was used to obtain a search warrant; and (3) The trial court erred in refusing to change venue and in refusing to grant a motion to dismiss the capital felony charge. The victim was physically abused, mutilated and fatally stabbed in a shed which belonged to his mother.
