Reflective cadmium.Hi everyone, it is me, the good old Barba c, coming to you once again with a preview of some maps i've been working on lately. I've been working on these maps for a while now and i hope they will give you a taste of what is to come. There are some basic layouts and units, but as i said, i have some features that are still being worked on and i don't want to spoil them for you so i'm just going to keep them to myself for now. I would like to thank all you who played my preview and gave me feedback and would like to give special thanks to Paul for his help on the "Change landscape" feature (that allows you to move the landscape around, move around on maps or make them flat), to Gwaltney for the idea of the china pattern and to everyone who played my preview. So without further ado, here are the links to the maps: Good luck on your battles and enjoy the maps. Thank you for playing. Barba_c You can find me in these clans: = "World geoid estimation software"
