Inspired by the very best in music and games, 'Inside My Radio' has been conceived as a game worthy of induction into the prestigious 2006 Game Collection of the Year Edition. You play the role of a DJ in a futuristic world, who will have to master the music genre along with advanced technology and a high degree of creativity in order to keep your audience up to date with the latest trends. To achieve this, you'll need to use the use of your favourite devices in order to discover the secrets of the mysterious world, and in the process you'll be able to dance to new songs and even learn new skills! The Name: Inside My Radio - The game has been designed with the full collaboration of musical artists, who have been supportive in giving their ideas and suggestions to the game. In order to bring you the most exciting and innovative, themed game, we asked these artists to create original artworks for each band or artist in the game. For more details, please read the full press kit below. Features: The musical genre is the centre of this unique game: a fantastic experience for music fans, fans of the movie 'Journey', and anyone that's ever loved a good music game. Inside My Radio is the first in a series of games that are a collaboration between a music artist and a gamer, and since our debut game, we have assembled a huge team of artists and musicians to collaborate with, and we're planning to include more artists in our projects, in the future. Gameplay: DJ style gameplay, with a futuristic theme, featuring beautiful graphics and music. The game combines a healthy dose of music with platform-style gameplay where the player controls an in-game DJ, and performs musical tricks. Other features: Multiple plot-lines, a real-time FM station, music videos, and an innovative User Interface. The Community: For any new release, we always try to give the community the most enthusiastic and fun community events possible. We are constantly working with artists, musicians and video game companies to offer in-game collaborations, so be sure to check the list of activities on our official website at Risks and challenges The most important aspect of the creative process for any developer is the realisation of the vision presented in the project. This is one of the main reasons why Inside My Radio has come up with d41b202975

Hardcore Review The Review Just when you thought you had seen everything with music games, Inside My Radio comes along and proves you wrong. Deep, meaningful, music-driven entertainment that proves no game has too much music. Can you see where this is going? Lyrics "You know the lyrics, I know the moves, We can build up an emotion, An emotion in motion. Oh, I know the words that make you sweat, Got some raw nerve inside me, Jut I'm rockin' all night with my whole heart" The mood of the music in this game is simple to understand, from the slow beginning of the game to the somewhat simple beats of the music which follow. You have to find the key and use it to unlock the levels of the game, which is mostly based on the lyrics to the songs. The game has five levels of play and all you have to do is unlock the song you want to play. Inside My Radio takes everything you would expect to do with a music game and turns it on its head. The music and game play is easy to understand, allowing the game to move at a nice pace and provide a good length for the game. The game is very well done and shows off great examples of the power that music games can have with a little effort. Music Some gamers might think that a music game like this would be filled with nothing but death metal, but that is definitely not the case. Inside My Radio has a very diverse music selection, ranging from pop, rock, and dance. The music is well suited to the game and follows through in a very natural way. The game is just about half an hour long but it is one of those games that will require you to replay it a few times, especially if you want to do the multi-level stuff. Each song is about three to five minutes and is a nice fit for the game. As far as length goes, Inside My Radio has very good replay value, at least as far as music games go. Gameplay The game takes what most people would think of when they think about a music game and turns it inside out. You basically jump over words and follow the music. The whole point of the game is to use the song lyrics to unlock the next level in the game. Basically you have to understand the entire song to unlock the next level. The game is filled with different challenges and mind-blowing moves. You can unlock a

What's new:

Segment Howard Steele - sports analyst Eunice Puthrikadandy - newsreader Chris Marshall - music director On behalf of all of us at Radio 2:Eighty-Five FM we want to wish you a very happy and a very, very Merry Christmas. With Christmas comes presents and we all want presents. We believe that if we look under the tree and make a wish - we are very specific about that - we then are much more likely to receive it. So we have even made a Christmas wish list, which is so important and we've put it on our website and we've included some of the good things that we receive. [Radio 2: If you missed the program, it can still be accessed at the Program Archive or by clicking here.] We also wished Eunice a Merry Christmas, as she works so hard at the news desk. I do so like Eunice and I don't think she's ever made a wish list, but she is fond of two occasions where she's been wished a Merry Christmas and I do think we want to wish her a Merry Christmas. With that, we're off. There is a tremendous catalogue of results out there and we'll tell you what is relevant to you. First up, look for Premier League results, starting with bottom club West Ham. They have one thing in common with Elland Road, in that they've got an English manager in charge. They have beaten Coventry at the Lane and now the derby at Upton Park is the first step on the road to the drop zone. Bradford have brought their season to an early close by going down at fellow strugglers Millwall and there was one other weekend to go before the floodgates really opened. That's when Watford and Burnley kicked off. With a 3-2 victory over their neighbours, Burnley have the smallest home win percentage in the division. Bradford haven't won at Millwall since 1989, in fact they haven't won away from home all year, so it's an uphill battle and a challenge for them, even though it's one which Watford dominated. At the top, Manchester City stay on top and if next week's results come off Leicester and Arsenal, the Citizens will move to 25 points clear and would be runners up. Lifting the lid on their league position, Manchester City confirmed why they are so far ahead of rivals Manchester United. They are unbeaten at home and
