As a Tarnished, you must establish a new way of life in a world where no one else exists, as well as recover your precious memories, forge your path, and enhance your powers. The creation of your own character begins with the creation of your Tarnished. As you acquire new clothes and equipment, you can customize your character according to your play style, to develop your character's unique Tarnished identity. Although you can take on a variety of roles as a Tarnished, you are ultimately only as strong as the character you create. BATTLE System THE Battle system will consist of the following elements: ■ Battle System: Charging Attack ■ Battle System: AoE and All-Round Attack ■ Battle System: Defense System ■ Battle System: Magic ■ Battle System: Special Move ■ Battle System: Order Board ■ Battle System: Battle Moves ■ Battle System: Charging Attack In the battle system, attack commands are charged with a charge bar (bar shown in the top-right corner of the screen when you are training) and are used to launch a special attack when the bar is filled. When launching an attack, you can customize the settings for attack commands, such as the attack speed. You can use special moves to attack enemies that are in certain ranges. The special moves can be used once per turn (B), and when an enemy is caught in an AoE, it can be attacked once per turn (C). When you are in battle, try to mix and match the various kinds of attacks and special moves to make the best use of your attack commands. ■ Battle System: AoE and All-Round Attack The AoE symbol (A) will appear in the lower part of the screen when an enemy character that is in an AoE is selected, and will expand to encompass the screen when an enemy character is attacked. When the AoE is filled, the screen will be covered by blue light, and you can use special moves or command with an "X" mark on the screen. As an attack command costs one bar, you can use AoE attacks up to the maximum number of bar included in your character sheet (A-MAX) at once. When you are attacked in the AoE, it will be a regular attack even if your character is weak, so be careful. ■ Battle System: Defense System The defenders have an invisible shield (yellow and white key) that surrounds their body. Press X on the character sheet to reveal it and activate the shield to protect yourself from enemy attacks. You can press X again to deactivate it. If your character or the character in the AoE detects an AoE, they can press an X button on their character sheet to "pop" or activate their shield. You can also defend the AoE by "flicking" enemies who are about to attack using the Triangle button, which is
