Dont get me wrong, it is still on my short list, but not as high. New York-based IDT Corp., a subsidiary of Israel's Group 8 Ltd. (TASE:G8L.T), is expecting to break even in the first half of 2015, a year earlier than expected, and plans to finish the year with a net profit of $2.5 million compared to losses of $16.6 million a year ago, the company said on Tuesday. The company is proposing a dividend of $0.05 per share for the second quarter. Group 8 acquired IDT Corp. in September for $132 million after the firm announced it was ending its wireless, Voice-over-Internet-Protocol and satellite markets.

IDT's most successful product has been the FLEX16, an analog wireless communications system that, according to the company, has been in production for

over 20 years,
with over 5 billion
units sold. It's been installed in various commercial and government
markets, including
casinos, airports,

food and market. Group 8

and IDT are both
headquartered in Israel, but the
initial transaction
between the companies
included the IDT
subsidiary in the
United States. In December, the company

transferred
control of the U.S.
unit, IDTC, to a
separate
company, IDT
Acquisition Corp.,
which was also incorporated in
New York. Group 8
is the largest
