The Devil's Minion is a card whose special ability gives enemies an extra turn after they win the game. During this extra turn they may place a demon using their own deck. If the enemy loses, the demon is removed from play. On the second turn of the extra turn, they may choose to counter-attack the player. This card is available in all game modes. The Devil's Minion's special ability - Energy Management In order to play this card, you must have an Energy Meter with at least 3 energy (or 0 if you are level 11 or higher). You can gain Energy by placing cards from your deck into the Energy Meter. You can get 1 Energy by placing a card into the Energy Meter. You can also gain Energy by playing cards from your hand and/or the discard pile to the Energy Meter. When you play this card, you must place a copy of the card you are playing in the Energy Meter. When you play this card, you can place 2 cards from your deck into the Energy Meter. The Devil's Minion's special ability - Devil's Blade Energy Management is used up by the time this card is played. When you attack an enemy during this extra turn, you may choose not to deal damage and may cause the enemy to make a (Psychic) miss. When you play this card, it is placed in the Energy Meter. Devil's Minion's special ability - Energy Control Energy Management is used up by the time this card is played. When you attack an enemy during this extra turn, you may choose not to deal damage and may cause the enemy to make a (Psychic) miss. When you play this card, it is placed in the Energy Meter. Devil's Minion's special ability - Be Insane! Energy Management is used up by the time this card is played. Energy Control is used up by the time this card is played. During this extra turn, you can draw up to 2 cards from your deck and/or the discard pile to the Energy Meter. When you play this card, it is placed in the Energy Meter. Devil's Minion's special ability - Energy Management Energy Management is used up by the time this card is played. Energy Control is used up by the time this card is played. You can choose to either move the Energy you gained from the Energy Meter to an empty Energy Meter slot, or place the Energy in your hand. You may only do this

Lab 03 Yrirth is a full text adventure game based on the occult and paranormal in Victorian Britain. The game consists of a realistic storyline, contextual combat and role-playing elements, in-depth psychological aspects, a detailed map system, NPC interaction and multiple endings, all leading up to a supernatural conclusion. The player assumes the role of David Thurston, a recently orphaned writer of supernatural history who must resolve his mysterious and frightening past. The player will be able to make many choices throughout his investigations which will affect the game's story and the course of his life. Lab 03 Yrirth is set between 1870 and 1880. It is a historically realistic, very atmospheric, Victorian-era, supernatural horror role-playing game. The year is 1882. Until now, the tragic tale of Kate has been left in the dark, but she will become his adversary and threaten his life. Your quest is to make the dark unknown known and reveal the terror that remains within. Please, keep an eye out for future updates on Lab 03 Yrirth! :) Salina Lab 03 Yrirth is set in Salina, in the United Kingdom. It is a well-groomed city based on the real Salinas in Spain. Mazes Mazes in Lab 03 Yrirth : One maze is inside the mines, the other two are next to the lake, and the third one is in the city. Intro Hello, and welcome to the Lab 03 Yrirth project! We are a group of people who have been playing together for a few years now, but we only decided to share our experiences at the beginning of last year. Since then, we have been designing, writing and code-crafting every day. We currently want to share what we have achieved with the whole Gamestorm community! I hope you find the game as interesting as we do! Yeah I read you sent your take on the contest to the admins, and I really appreciated it. Tbh I'd just be happy if the contests would start up again, sheesh I want to see the stuff which makes it on the forum. I really don't have any opinion on it right now, it's rather not a big deal. Just a reminder - we are currently having a renovation project in our basement done by our builder over the next few weeks - all noise/disturbance is not something to be taken lightly and is not acceptable at any time. Most of the other orgasms happen when your hair is in a ponytail, I suggest you try a spiral twist as it will make them life long sensations. Also, switch to brushing your hair instead of combing it to give it that truly wavy feel. I recently had a dream where I really did come while combing my hair. I thought I would have more control and I didn't, I just came and shocked myself. But it was very pleasurable, it was in a dream. Another thing that happened. I tried to use saran wrap as a hair net while bathing and once I was out of the bath I scratched the saran wrap with my fingers, and before I knew it, it was all me inside, rubbing against my stomach and butt. It was a really magical feeling when your inside it and you have a man in your mouth, and a pussy just around the corner. I'm down to one orgasm, from a buttplug, in a bareback position. I don't have a second so far. Any experience with this? Sadquarius wrote:I'm down to one orgasm, from a buttplug, in a bareback position. I don't have a second so far. Any experience with this? I would say it's normal for a couple of days. I had ONE orgasm from a buttplug. I think it was the one with the smell of coffee and powdered creme. If your 'couple of days' have nearly turned into hours, I suggest you try to think of something very sexy that can give you arousal. After you orgasm, make sure to put a game you play eight chess pieces around a game board, reminiscent of chess. The game starts with a queen and a king and each move is a chess move: first move of the game is a bishop or a knight and so on until you reach the pawns, which are the strongest pieces. Download the game of chess and play on your computer, tablet or smartphone. PS: This mod is a "Demo Version" - please send me a letter with your eMail to know about the differences between the demo version and the full version - Users can change the number of playing pieces on the board. You can now choose 4, 5, 6 or 7 - Users can now select multiple different endings. By default the game ends after four turns but you can decide for yourself how to end the game 1.1.1 - A bug that prevented multiple endings to play has been fixed 1.1.0 - A new chessboard - adjustment 1.0.2 - A bug with the number of pieces on the chessboard is fixed. 1.0.1 - A bug in the background music has been fixed. 1.0.0 - The game now remembers the last played ending and can now select the last used ending.
