BLINK: The Last Night is a Japanese 2D side-scroller hybrid action-fantasy film, and the second of two BLINK films that are based on the BLINK anime television series. Released on December 12, 2014 (December 18 internationally), it is an anime-style film. The film itself is directed by Takayuki Hamana (Puella Magi Madoka Magica, JoJo's Bizarre Adventure: All Star Battle). The story is based on the manga series by Tsunehiko Tamaki. The musical score is produced by Shinji Tsuji (Bleach, JoJo's Bizarre Adventure). It is the debut feature film for animation studio Atomic Cartoons, and it is primarily animated in Tezuka Film Productions' Celluloid Series. Plot In the near future, a combination of natural disasters and social turmoil have led to the world's collapse. Below Europe lies an energy-depleted wasteland known as the "Black Sesame". In this wasteland, the eternal night known as the begins again. Only wealthy and powerful survivors of the world's end escape the Black Sesame and establish themselves as and ruler of the wasteland, preparing for the that will bring them to power. Little does anyone realize that the "Black Sesame" and the "Sucker Bullet" are only the beginning of their journey into the depths of the Black Sesame. Toshio Akiyama is a ten-year-old boy living in rural Africa with his parents, Hana and Taichi. Despite being from two extremes, a normal life with his parents and friends, he tries to defeat the with his friends Natsumi and Akio. Despite being a kid his age, Akiyama has an intense desire to defeat and kill the Sucker Bullets. Also on his side are Hibi-yama, who has an emotional reason for wanting to kill the Sucker Bullets and protect those who cannot protect themselves. And unlike other kids Akiyama, his friends and enemies alike, he has a big secret about his past. Toshio Akiyama, Natsumi, Akio, Hibi-yama, and CHILL, a girl with a large doll head, go on a side-quest to locate the alleged treasure of the deity worshipped by the Sucker Bullets.
