The game has two different modes of play, Story Mode and Boss Rush Mode. Story Mode is a fun platformer with a variety of vibrant worlds and unique bosses to fight. Boss Rush is a single-player game mode that allows players to replay already beaten worlds. Both modes have two different skill levels, so players of all skill levels can enjoy the game. Boss Rush is controlled with the touch screen and allows players to control characters in a very similar way as you would control them with a joystick. What's new:

-Dissonance The young, beautiful, and powerful Wisteria Ramona Fusch is the youngest of the five daughters of Raizen Fusch, an emperor of the realm of Fusch. Wisteria was born as much of the will of the powerful god of Light as she was of ordinary human DNA. The old god had known of the four eldest daughters, and planned to use them as his emissaries to the world. The group of sisters are four females who have been born since the coming of the World Tree, and are the only siblings in the family not to inherit the title of emperor. The daughters are named Amelia, Allora, Perona, and Dones. But as the youngest sister, she has been the subject of the affection of her father and the animosity of the rest of the family. Raizen had desired to have a son to inherit the title of emperor, but the five daughters were born instead. The biological mother, an insignificant lady in the court at the time, was demoted from the title of princess to that of noble. And two of the daughters were given demonic blood, which gave them their enormous magical power, and forced their father to shun them since they were not human. Wisteria, being so young and innocent at the time, had never noticed much of the family strife. Which was why she didn't know that her name had appeared in the other four's minds, as they searched for a worthy opponent to fulfill the task the oldest daughter had given them. When the men of their world go out to forge the new world in the east, four men volunteered. Unbeknownst to them the god of Light had selected Wisteria Fusch first, as her power was so intense. The strong pull she had with the god was such that she felt it clearly the day she was born. She is tempted by the power, and the light of the god within her. Her enemies are the men who know of her power, and the prince of the Otherworld who is also hunting her. Wisteria returns to humanity, feeling that she has lost her strength and lost the ability to maintain the balance between the powers of good and evil. She just wants peace. But she loses all peace within her, as her powers are awakened. I am deeply sorry for the series of late, I just haven't had much free time. Don't really have a plan anymore. I hope everyone is enjoying the series
