One of the biggest stories of the week was the news of one of the most financially overconfident people in sports. Not only did Clayton Kershaw essentially guarantee himself a place in the Game 5 starting rotation (and a spot in the National League Championship Series), he also guaranteed himself a check for $65.1 million over the next three years. Here's the full press release: San Francisco Giants Announce Kershaw Will Start Game 5 of NLCS at LCS Theme Park SAN FRANCISCO – San Francisco Giants CEO Larry Baer and executive vice president and general manager Brian Sabean today announced that Clayton Kershaw will start Game 5 of the National League Championship Series on Wednesday, October 22, 2011, at LCS Theme Park in Scottsdale, Ariz. The game will be televised nationally on FOX and will be the fourth game played at LCS Theme Park this postseason. “On behalf of our entire organization, we’re extremely excited to have Clayton take the mound and start Game 5 of the NLCS,” Baer said. “While Clayton has been a consistent All-Star, this is an even bigger deal for him. He’s grown up in the spotlight and was a key part of our success last postseason and throughout his young career. This is an important stage in his career and we’re looking forward to seeing him pitch in the best conditions we’ve ever seen him pitch.” “Our organization and every Giants fan is excited that Clayton will have a chance to start Game 5 of the NLCS at LCS Theme Park,” Sabean said. “Clayton is an amazing pitcher and we are confident he will be ready to go. This is the kind of stage he has been waiting for and we look forward to seeing him perform.” Kershaw has compiled a career postseason record of 3-0 with a 0.50 ERA and 3.20 ERA in the 2012 National League Championship Series. He is the only pitcher to win three consecutive postseason starts with the Dodgers while recording at least seven strikeouts. He led the Dodgers to the National League Division Series in both 2010 and 2011, and in 2010, Kershaw was named the NLCS MVP. Clayton is the first Dodger pitcher to earn a start in the first three games of the NLCS since Clayton Broyles did so for the Angels in 2002. The Dodgers have won six consecutive starts by starting pitchers dating back to
