The House of Commons has voted to seek a second Brexit referendum, following a new report from Theresa May's senior ministers that said Parliament has the power to take it back from the EU. In a last-ditch attempt to block a no-deal Brexit, the Commons voted by 498 votes to 122 to demand a rerun of the 2016 Brexit referendum. The vote came after ministers said the Government would seek to delay Brexit by no less than three months - and was supported by MPs from across the Commons party divide. But even with the support of the other UK political parties - it was still
