Entering its 20th year of production, the DVD Project is sponsored by Ascent Media, a longtime supporter of the Music Library Association and its members. This event not only raises critical funds to support and develop the best library materials available for teaching music of all kinds, but brings together a wide range of like-minded collaborators to produce a package that promotes the value of music education. We thank you for your participation in this vital fundraising event. In fact, our reach is much greater than the amount raised at this event as we continue to work to raise substantial funds for the Music Library Association and the work we do. Please keep us in your thoughts and prayers, including those of our families and loved ones, as we approach this special and challenging milestone in our lives. We are looking forward to working with our esteemed panelists and sponsors to present a series of educational and engaging DVDs that we hope will help transform the lives of students of all ages.
