Our planet has not changed much, and we still live among the hills, on the slopes of which grow trees with large leaves. These trees are very similar to those that grew here, and we think that they the same as before, and that they are part of our ancient planet. We call them "oaks." On our continent we know another plant, its leaves are also similar to oak. This is a bush with blue flowers, similar to hawthorn flowers .

I tried this var url = ''; $.ajax({ url: url, type: 'GET', dataType: 'document' }).done(function (response) { document.body.innerHTML = response; }).fail(function () { alert("Failed to load a page from " + url); }) i get the following error: Failed to load a page from This request to was blocked: unapproved request header field content-encoding from 127.0.0.1. jquery-3.2.1.js:3546Uncaught Error: Failed to load a page from "" at blob_http_impl_cookie_parser_fail_ (jquery-3.2.1.js:3546) at get_response (jquery-3.2.1.js:4046) at done (jquery-3.2.1.js:4794) at XML c6a93da74d
