Most Komandors are made using real wood frame that is built to withstand the test of time. All of their closet designs are constructed from sturdy materials that can easily last for generations. When you buy a Komandor, you'll get a durable, fashionable choice. Komandor house closets are available in a number of sizes to fit your needs. It doesn't matter if you have just a few closets or you have a large, open plan house with a laundry room or a basement. With Komandor, they are known for their quality, durability and most importantly, their affordability. You don't have to worry about spending thousands of dollars on custom built furniture, you can have a custom built, high quality closet system for a fraction of the cost of traditional custom work. In recent years, Komandors tendency towards the industrial aesthetic has led to the use of lower-quality materials such as particleboard, MDF, fiberboard, and even particleboard and MDF, together. After years of producing quality products under the brand Komandor, the organization is now having a new look. A new direction. In the past ten years, the company has turned to focus on the Russian market and exported mainly to the CIS region. With the major step forward of the company new products have been created and new faces. We are happy to present our new product range at HITEC 2008 in St Petersburg. The door is one of the brand leaders in the world with more than thirty years of experience in this field. We are proud to introduce our new product range for interior designers and home owners. We hope that our new look will give our clients and partners the assurance of high quality products even for their most customized requirements. 5ec8ef588b
